Case No: C 07 3557 CRB

STIPULATION TO EXTEND TIME
TO PETITION THE COURT TO VACATE THE CONDITIONAL
DISMISSAL

1 Plaintiff The Guardian Insurance and Annuity Company, Inc. ("the
2 Guardian"), and Defendants Diane R. Abraham, as an individual and as Successor
3 Trustee Of The Dolph L. Camilli Bypass Trust, William H. Shea, Jr., as Successor
4 Trustee Of The Gerda M. Camilli Survivor Trust, and the Peninsula Humane
5 Society & SPCA (incorrectly named in the complaint as "SPCA of San Mateo,
6 California"), jointly submit this stipulation to extend the time to petition the Court
7 to vacate the conditional dismissal.

8
9 On May 7, 2008 the Court ordered that this case be dismissed without
10 prejudice provided that within sixty days (July 7, 2008), if the agreed consideration
11 for settlement has not been delivered over, upon certification by any party, the 12 dismissal shall be vacated and the case restored to calendar.

13
14 The Stipulation for Discharge, Dismissal, and Liquidation of Annuity
15 Contracts ("Stipulation for Discharge"), which will dispose of this case in its 16 entirety, has been circulated to the thirteen Defendants, including those residing 17 outside of the United States. To date, three of the Defendants, who are in pro per,
18 have not executed the Stipulation for Discharge and returned it to Plaintiff's
19 counsel.

Accordingly, counsel for the represented parties whose signatures appear below request that the Court grant a 60-day extension of time to petition the Court to vacate the dismissal. Such extension will allow time for all parties concerned to review, execute and return the Stipulation for Discharge and permit the full resolution of this case via settlement. Alternatively, the parties request that the dismissal be vacated.
